COURSE FAQs

Are these courses taken online or in person?

Each of our TEFL courses offers a 100% online and self-paced option. This means you can begin at any time, study at your own pace and complete the course alongside your work, school or family schedule.

Are these TEFL courses accredited?

A TEFL certification is the ESL qualification of choice for hiring schools all around the world, however, there's no single international accrediting body in place to govern TEFL course standards. Instead, we recommend opting for a TEFL course from a reputable provider that knows a thing or two about teaching!

How long does it take to complete the course?

On average, our TEFL courses take approximately 6-12 weeks to complete. However, the course is completely self-paced and students are given one-year to complete it.

What does the curriculum cover?

The course curriculum introduces you to the fundamentals of teaching the English language and prepares you for your new life abroad with intensive modules that explore International Teaching and Global Effectiveness.
